SCHOLARSHIPS FOR LL.M. STUDENTS

Fordham Law has funding available for LL.M. Students. You are encouraged to read more about each opportunity on our website: law.fordham.edu/llm/scholarships

Fordham Law LL.M. Feerick, Treanor, and Martin Scholarships

- We are pleased to announce three new scholarships, named in honor of former Fordham Law School deans who contributed enormously to the development of our LL.M. programs. These are the John D. Feerick Scholarship, the William Michael Treanor Scholarship, and the Michael M. Martin Scholarship.
- Recipients will be awarded a scholarship equal to 100% of the LL.M. tuition. These three scholarships will be awarded to exceptional applicants to the full-time program who are found to possess character traits embodied by one or more of these great leaders.
- Deadline to apply: February 1. All application materials and the essay must be received by this date to be considered.
- Those seeking to start their LL.M. studies in spring should submit their applications to the preceding fall term to be considered.

Fordham Law Graduate Student Scholarships

- The admissions committee awards partial scholarships to select LL.M. applicants based on merit. To be considered, check the box on your application stating that you wish to be considered for a Graduate Student Scholarship. This can be found under the section, “Additional Information.”
- Priority consideration is given to those with applications completed by the early scholarship deadline, February 1 (Fall) and September 21 (Spring).

The Vivian Leitner Global South LL.M. Scholars Program

- This scholarship is restricted to a select few highly qualified LL.M. candidates in international human rights.
- For application information, including the application deadline, please visit the Leitner Center’s webpage: <http://www.leitnercenter.org/programs/VLGSLLM/>

External Resources

- Our office has gathered together a list of external scholarships and resources that may be relevant to LL.M. students. You are encouraged to use this list as a starting place in your search. More detailed information is available on our website.

TMS Tuition Payment Plan

- Fordham University offers a monthly tuition payment plan administered by Tuition Management Systems (TMS).

Fordham Law Financial Aid Office

- The Financial Aid Office also maintains a listing of scholarship programs, some of which may be open to Graduate Students.

BAR ELIGIBILITY

All of our LL.M. programs are designed to meet the requirements of the “cure” provision (Rules 520.6(b)(1)(ii) and 520.6(b)(2)) for students intending to sit for the New York State Bar Examination.

PROFESSIONAL LL.M. TRACK

Allows full-time students to take a leave of absence from their studies to attend to professional obligations at home and then return to complete their LL.M. studies.
